DESIGNED FOR THE DIFFERENT

Mondrian Al Marjan Island Beach Residences

A LIFESTYLE FOR VISIONARIES, AND CULTURAL CURATORS

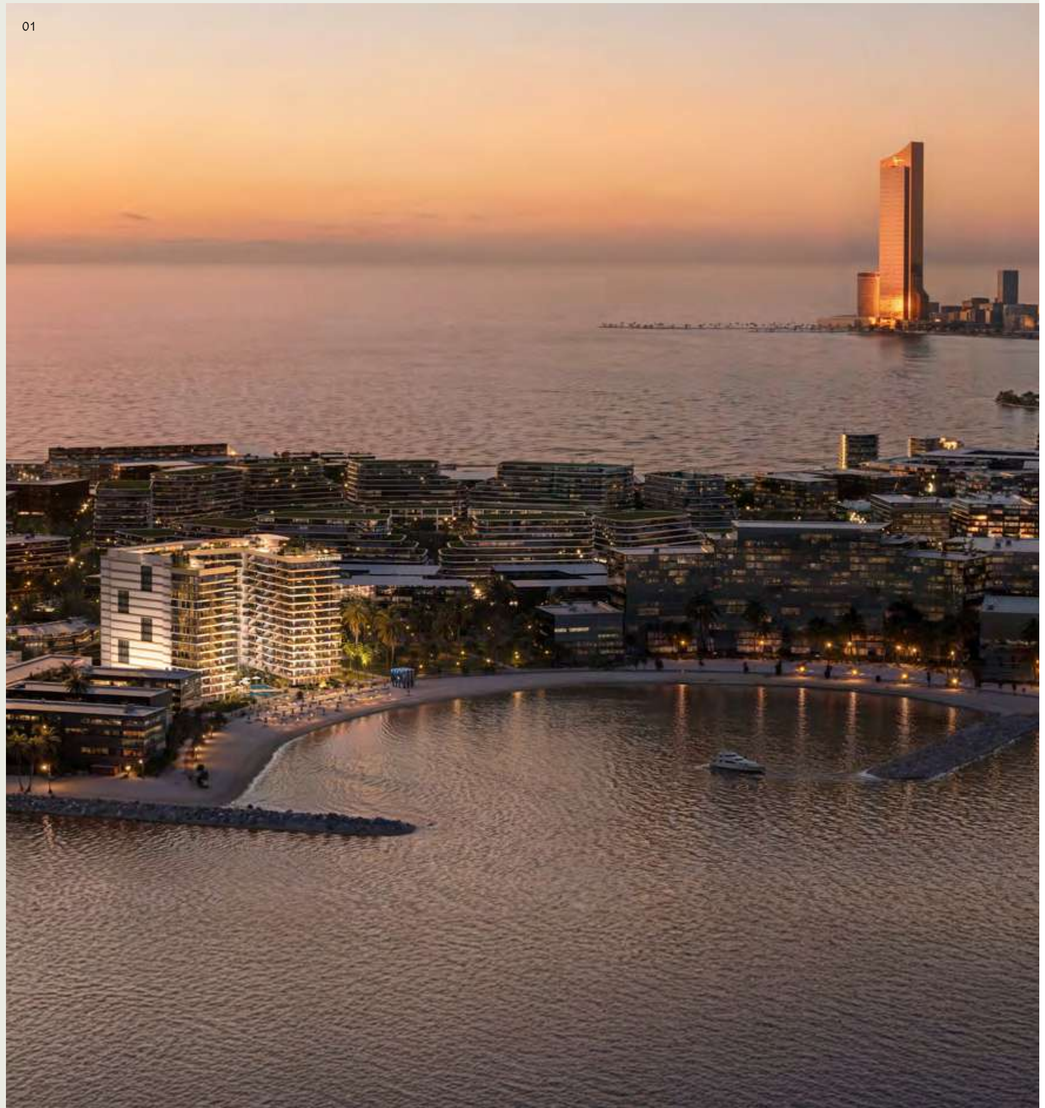

Mondrian Residences make the most of Al Marjan Island.

Bold design interplays with sophisticated aesthetic detail, while the island's cultural energy is reflected in the vibrant beachfront location.

Shaped by the sun, sculpted by the sea and elevated by the imagination, this is a lifestyle for provocative visionaries and cultural tastemakers. People who live life at their own pace, one that is unrushed, uncompromised and unmistakably Mondrian.

EVERYTHING HAS LED TO THIS MOMENT

01

Mondrian was born to be famous, with an origin story that's Hollywood in every sense.

01 ——— Al Marjan Island Aerial View
02 ——— Mondrian Los Angeles

In 1996 the Mondrian brand burst onto the Los Angeles scene, dripping with glamour and quickly became the place for the city's A-list elite to meet and be seen. Its status as a magnet for the artistic and creative is no surprise, as it was conceived and designed by some of the world's most iconic dreamers and inspirational minds.

From its origins of inspiration in Piet Mondrian's abstract art to the signature styles of Phillipe Starck and Marcel Wanders, Mondrian has always been connected to the world of modern design and the cultures that surround it.

Since 2020, Mondrian has been managed by Ennismore, the largest and fastest-growing lifestyle hospitality brand, who curate unique properties and experiences in some of the world's most exciting destinations.

Built on the beach, the design of each residence has been influenced by the natural landscape's close proximity.

Inspired by the smooth, sculpted form of stacking pebbles shaped by time and tide, each home embodies a sense of balance, peace, and sophistication. Ocean views are uninterrupted. The materials used for tactile surfaces are callbacks to the surrounding natural environment. The line between building and beach, home and natural world becomes blurred. They are virtually one and the same.
